Have You Set "SMART" Goals?

2022, First-Quarter

January, Our Goal Workshop helped women establish "SMART" goals for 2022. We empower and hold you accountable to not give up on your passions and goals but to work towards them by setting milestones.

February, What Type of Relationship Do You Want? Workshop offered a chance to have relationship questions and concerns addressed by a mental health professional! We discussed common patterns in relationships, the key to successful relationships, and the role that we all play in fostering healthy relationships.
